Findings of Committee.—On motion of J. W. C. Coxe the Secretary was ordered to publish in the Conference Journal the findings of the Committee in the case of W. H. Mahaffie.

Report of the Committee of Investigation in the Case of W. H. Mahaffie.

Your Committee to whom was referred the case of W. H. Mahaffie for investigation, respectfully submit the following report. After careful and deliberate inquiry we find the following:—

First.—(a.) That while the Rev. W. H. Mahaffie was pastor of the Grace M. E. Church in Burlington, Iowa, during the conference year 1898-99, he did falsify a certain subscription which was being circulated for the purpose of liquidating a debt on said church, by placing thereon the name and subscription of certain persons without their consent.

(b.) He did place on said subscription paper the name of one I. N. Ripley, with a subscription of Five Hundred Dollars (500) and after securing by this means other subscriptions, did write opposite the said name an acknowledgement that the said I. N. Ripley did not make the afore-said subscription.

(c.) He did increase the amounts of other subscriptions, which had been made in good faith.

Second.—He did receive on the above mentioned subscription from one John Hunt Fifty Dollars (50), and from Chris Haw, of Ottumwa, Iowa, a contribution of Five Dollars (5). Neither of these sums was applied on said church debt.

Third.—He did report to the Conference Treasurer at the conference session of 1899 at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, for missions only the amount contributed by the Sunday School of Grace church, viz:—One Hundred and Thirty Dollars (130).

Fourth.—(a) He did make an exhibit in figures to his successor on the Letts charge, Rev. J. M. McClelland, acknowledging that he had collected for benevolences on said charge, the sum of Forty-five and Fifty-five Hundreths Dollars (45.55).

(b) Two (2) Five Dollar ($5) subscriptions represented in the said exhibit, were marked by him "not paid;" both were paid.

(c) He received from one Robert Courtney Five Dollars ($5) and from one T. A. Barnes Two Dollars ($2), which amounts were not reported at conference nor paid to his successor, Rev. J. M. McClelland.

Fifth. (a) At the last session of the Iowa Conference held at Bloomfield, Iowa, Sept., 1900, the Conference Treasurer received a letter from Rev. W. H. Mahaffie, asking for a credit for Forty-five Dollars ($45) to be given to the Letts charge for missions, promising in lieu thereof, to send a voucher to the Conference Treasurer for the same. No credit was given, no voucher has been received.

(b) October 19, 1900, the Conference Treasurer received from Rev. W. H. Mahaffie a second letter in which he said, (the following being an exact quotation: "If I do not find the voucher, I will send you the money or send to treasurer of Missionary society at your direction.") No money or voucher has been received.

Sixth.—While pastor at Letts he did borrow several sums of money from different parties, with Two Hundred Dollars ($200), secured on his endorsed paper from the Citizens' Savings Bank, of Letts, Iowa. Although long since due, it remains unpaid.

The above findings are based on paragraph No. 225 of the Discipline of 1900, and believing that the Rev. W. H. Mahaffie has behaved dishonestly and also contracted debts without the probability of paying, we therefore recommend that the case be disposed of according to paragraph No. 222, Section No. 1, of the Discipline of 1900.

Signed,	E. L. SCHREINER	} Committee.
	J. M. McCLELLAND
	T. S. POOL

On motion of J. C. W. Coxe the Conference was ordered to meet on Monday morning at 8:00 a. m. in business session.

Introduced.—Prof. F. W. Hanawalt was introduced and made some statements concerning the approaching session of the Iowa State Epworth League Convention to be held in Grinnell in November.

Adjournment.—The announcements were made, the doxology was sung and Bishop Hamilton pronounced the benediction.

FIFTH DAY.

SIXTH DAY.

KEOKUK, IOWA, Monday, Sept. 22, 1902.

Opening.—The devotional exercises were conducted by W. C. Van Schoiack. T. J. Myers, by appointment of the Bishop, took the chair at 8:15. Owing to the absence of the Bishop the reading of the minutes of Saturday's session was postponed.

Superannuates.—On motion of A. V. Kendrick the following report relating to the Superannuate Fund was adopted: Your Committee to whom was referred the matter of a better provision for our Conference Claimants would make the following additional report:

1st. That we adopt the plan as recommended by the discipline Para, 292-293, viz., the Conference Claimants' Fund and the Annuity Fund.

2nd. That of these funds the Conference Claimants' Fund to consist of the funds raised by annual collections, the proceeds of the Chartered Fund and of the Book Concern. Said fund to be disbursed on the basis of necessity. The Annuity Fund to consist of the present Permanent Fund and all special gifts and bequests. The proceeds of this fund to be disbursed on the basis laid down in Para. 293.

3rd. That at each session of the Iowa Conference a public service be held in the interests of the Conference Claimants.

4th. That in each pastoral Charge special effort be made to raise the full apportionment for the Conference Claimants, and that special gifts and bequests be solicited for the Annuity Fund.

On motion of A. V. Kendrick the following committee upon Permanent Fund was elected in harmony with the resolution already adopted: I. B. Schreckengast, E. H. Waring, D. C. Smith, E. L. Schreiner, C. L. Stafford.

Wesley Anniversary.—On motion of E. H. Waring the following supplementary resolution was adopted:

Whereas, June 17, 1703 O. S. (corresponding to June 28 N. S.) is the date of the birth of John Wesley and

Whereas, June 28, 1903, will be the bi-centennial of his birth,

Resolved, That we recommend that in all our Church arrangements shall be made to hold the 28th of June next, or as soon thereafter as practicable suitable services, and that special services be also arranged for in our Epworth Leagues and Sabbath Schools to give our people an opportunity to express their gratitude to the Divine Providence that raised him up and directed and sustained him in the glorious work of "spreading scriptural holiness."

Resolved, Second, That at the meetings herein provided for, opportunity be given for a general thank offering to be devoted to the cause of education within the Conference, or to such other cause as the donors may severally designate.

Permanent Fund.—The report of Mr. George Haw, Treasurer of the Permanent Fund, was read and adopted and on motion of J. C. W. Coxé was ordered printed in the minutes.

Reports of Presiding Elders.

BURLINGTON DISTRICT.

G. M. Tuttle,—Presiding Elder.

In submitting this my sixth and final report for the Burlington District, I am led to a deep sense of my unworthiness, and of profound gratitude to our Heavenly Father for his abundant mercies toward me. No one year of the six has occasioned more anxious solicitude for the welfare of the Church, nor have there ever been clearer evidences of the Divine presence than this which is now closing.

There has been but little interruption in the appointments since the last session of the Conference. Dr. Heppe, pastor of the First Church of Mt. Pleasant, was compelled, because of failing health, to resign his work with the last Sabbath in June. This was an occasion for mutual regret. We were fortunate, however, in that we were able to secure the services of Dean A. C. Piersel of the Iowa Wesleyan University at Mt. Pleasant, to take charge of the church until this Conference, and his work has been very acceptable.

The West Burlington charge has been supplied by W. H. Slack, a local preacher and student of the University, and who has done good service. The Eureka appointment on the Wayland Circuit was served by James F. Bingaman, a local preacher and a graduate of the University in June, and who had won the high regard of all.

No serious illness has befallen any of the pastors or their families during the year with but an exception. Brother Benjamin G. Hankins and wife of Oakville were called to experience a very sad affliction in the death of their only child, Francis Edith, aged thirteen years. She was a bright and intelligent daughter of rare promise. After several weeks of severe suffering she entered the portals of the Heavenly City, and "was not, for God had taken her."

In making a brief inventory of the year we notice the following: Ainsworth Charge has enlarged and otherwise improved their parsonage property, and also added something in the way of furnishings for the church at a cost of $700.

Mediapolis has finished up the basement of their new church which gives to them a much needed and suitable place for the social and literary interests of Epworth League and Sunday School work at a cost of $700.

Wapello has practically a new and modern church as a result of the improvements made at a cost of $3,900.

Oakville has completed their beautiful parsonage which is now occupied, the value of which is $1,500. The church at Winfield was damaged by a severe windstorm during the summer. The matter of making the necessary repairs raised the question as to the propriety of building a new church; that while the present one with some improvement might serve the purpose for a time, still it would not be convenient in its arrangements for the various services of the growing congregation. At this juncture of events the pastor secured from brother Wm. Hallows, an aged member of our church, a subscription of $5,000 for a new building, conditioned on there being raised $5,000 more for the same purpose by the first day of September, 1902. This condition has been met with and a goodly surplus in addition, and in the near future a new modern brick edifice will be built at a cost of from $13,000 to $15,000. Mt. Pleasant Circuit has been making repairs on their churches and parsonages, chiefly at the Wesley appointment, where they have so extensively reconstructed the church as to make it practically a new one, at a cost of $1400.

A new church with all of the modern improvements has been built at the Finley appointment of the Wayland Circuit at a cost of $3,500. During the past six years we have been permitted to witness the following results as to church and parsonage property: On the Hillsboro Circuit there have been built two churches at a cost of $1,500 each and a parsonage worth $800. At Grace Church, Burlington, a parsonage property secured for $3,100. At Burlington Circuit a church built worth $1,000. At Crawfordsville a parsonage property secured worth $1,200. At Fort Madison First Church the church was improved to the amount of $1,300. Santa Fe Ave., Fort Madison, the completion of the church and payment of a debt to the amount of $1,200. At Mediapolis a new church built costing about $12,000. At Morning Sun a church built at a cost of $10,000. At Mt. Union a parsonage built worth $1,850. Oakville, a parsonage built worth $1,200 and church worth $1,500. At Sperry a parsonage built worth $700. At Wayland a church built worth $3,500; and at West Point a church property procured worth $1,000. Total $43,350.

Added to this the cost of repairs which have not been mentioned and which have been made on nearly all of the churches and parsonages of the District, and we have not less than $6,000 more, making in the aggregate nearly $50,000. Sixteen out of twenty-six of the charges have increased the pastoral support to the amount of $2,125, including house rent. The pastoral claims will be met in full the present year with but few exceptions. Several of the charges are coming to regard these claims in a business-like way and the results are gratifying.

Indebtedness on church and parsonage property has to a large extent been provided for. Notably among those who have been successful are, Burlington First Church where $2,100 was raised meeting every claim, while Grace Church has paid about $900 on their debt. Columbus Junction has paid off their debt of $600. Morning Sun $2200 and the effort made has a surplus of several hundred dollars. Mt. Pleasant has paid their debt on the parsonage of $500. The debt on the parsonage at West Burlington has also been paid amounting to about $300. The remaining indebtedness on church property in the District is quite small outside of Grace Church, Burlington.

As to the Benevolences, I have endeavored to carry out the disciplinary plans so far as possible. Efforts have been made to keep before the minds of the pastors and churches the vital importance of these interests; and the pastors have been generally faithful and conscientious in their efforts to awaken the people under their care, to a deeper consecration and to a much larger liberality in regard to the urgent needs of the hour.

I have spoken to the pastors and to the congregations, and have also appealed to them through the Advocate, calling attention to the free publications for free distribution which will give to the people the necessary information in order to an intelligent response to these vital interests.

The Iowa Wesleyan University has closed another prosperous year. The high hopes entertained at the beginning were fully justified by the results at the close. There were graduated from the College of Liberal Arts sixteen, and in music, eight. Total, twenty-four

The opening of the present college year has even a brighter outlook than the previous one. The enrollment is still larger, about ten per cent and with more to follow. The Elizabeth Hershey Hall is becoming very popular as the home for lady students. Although several additional rooms had been fitted up, all are taken and with requests for more. The Matron, Mrs. Katharine Burnop, is deservedly popular, and the newly elected Preceptress, Miss Blanche Isabel Thoburn, has the highest recommendations of one well qualified for the position of responsibility which she is to fill.

The knowledge and acquaintance which Dr. Hancher, the President, has acquired during the past year concerning his work, have only served to increase his popularity and to strengthen his hands for the work in the future; and with a corps of consecrated instructors, well qualified for service, our hopes are warranted to rise for the success of the Institution. It is sincerely hoped that the President and Treasurer of the University will be successful in raising the debt during the current school year. My own convictions are that the relations of the Treasurer in aiding the President in this matter should not be changed. The year upon which we are now entering, brings to this Conference the opportune time to pay the debt. The expressed purposes, resolutions, and promises of the very recent years, are on the surface today demanding fulfillment. "Let us rise up and build" is the only fitting reply. An effort was made about a year ago to fund a portion of the debt so as to tide over an emergency. A number from among the best business men of our patronizing territory came to the rescue and it was successful. But a repetition of this is impracticable. The time has come when we must recognize responsibility, and pay the debt. When this is done there are good reasons for believing that its friends will be multiplied, and its horizon enlarged.

Two sessions of the District Conference were held, both of which were sessions of interest and profit. The District Epworth League Convention was held in the latter part of June at Hillsboro with good attendance considering the inconvenience of access in large portions of the District. In point of interest the Convention was one of the best ever held.

The Sunday School work is much better systematized, in that nearly all of them are operating under the Disciplinary plan.

The W. H. and W. F. M. societies are established and in active operation in many of the charges and their annual gatherings are sources of inspiration to church life and work.

While the spiritual condition of the District is not all that we had labored and prayed for, still the earnest consecrated services of the pastors have not been without fruit. Ainsworth, Columbus Junction, Santa Fe Ave., and First Church, Fort Madison, Mediapolis, Mt. Pleasant West, Mt. Union, Oakville and Wayland have each been blest with substantial gains, as a result of the special services held, while about every other charge of the District has shared in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and a good religious interest has prevailed.

In closing my work as Presiding Elder of the District, I have this to say. In entering upon the work I was confronted with many difficult problems—difficulties between pastor and people. I was besieged with committees, showered with letters, urged to appear on the scene immediately and change pastors in order to save the church. After a due course of procedure, order was brought out of confusion and peace prevailed. My burdens have been lightened and my hands strengthened by the hearty co-operation of my brethren in the ministry, whose uniform kindnesses with those of the laymen as well, have contributed largely to whatever measure of success I have had, and for all of which I tender my sincere thanks in this presence today. I am conscious of many failures and regret that I have not done better service but I am conscious as well of having done the best I could in all that has come to my heart and hands to do. With the adjournment of this Conference I shall turn over to my successor a company of Methodist preachers who can be trusted for unsurpassed loyalty and devotion to the cause of Christ as shall be committed to their care.

KEOKUK DISTRICT.

C. S. Cooper, Presiding Elder.

On adjournment of the Conference at Newton, three charges were left for the Presiding Elder to supply with Pastors. Alex Telfer was employed on the Floris Circuit; H. E. Butler on Mt. Zion; and S. H. Sperry on the Montrose work. In order that he might take work in Kansas we released Brother Sperry after he had served the charge about six months. Montrose was then attached to the Donnellson charge for the remainder of the year.

Early in the spring J. W. Carson of Mystic and his little boy Edgar were taken ill of lung fever and for some days were not expected to live; but in the good providence of God they both recovered to the great joy of family and friends. On the first of this present month Cora May, beloved wife of brother J. H. Dimmitt of Donnellson, was taken ill and died of heart failure on the tenth of September. She was highly esteemed by the people of Donnellson, her first and only pastoral work. Her obituary will appear in the minutes of this Conference

Six new churches have been dedicated this year and two others are in course of erection. The church at Donnellson, J. H. Dimmitt pastor, costing $2,800, including the lot, was dedicated by Dr. Hancher on the 8th of December. The remaining indebtedness of $700 was well provided for in good subscriptions, $400 of which has since been paid. This church is a portion of the good fruits of a tent meeting held by the Monkman Brothers, while employed by the Presiding Elder in evangelistic work. It is built after one of our Church Extension plans. The Board gave us a donation of $300, without which the church would not have been built.

The Church at Libertyville, J. B. Eyestone pastor, was dedicated also by Dr. Hancher. This is a beautiful and commodious structure for the place, and cost $5,200. All the remaining indebtedness was fully provided for at the dedication.

The church at Moulton is a substantial brick, costing $12,000.00. It was dedicated by Dr. Ives, of New York. The Doctor was so successful with the finances, that enough money in good subscriptions was secured to meet all remaining indebtedness and in addition to secure the purchase of a $1500.00 pipe organ. Pastor Ingham has done splendid service at Moulton.

Story Chapel, on Keosauqua circuit, was commenced last year, during the pastorate of Lincoln Hughes. It has cost, all complete, the sum of $2218.00. The Board of Church Extension secured its completion by a donation of $175.00. Nine hundred and twenty-nine dollars, a sum amply sufficient to meet all obligations, was secured at the dedication, February 15th, by the Presiding Elder, assisted by the pastor, A. C. Boyd, who will have a good report from the entire circuit.

Locust Grove church on Floris circuit, A. Telfer pastor, is situated at a cross roads about seven miles southwest of Floris. It is three miles or more from any other church and is the result of one of our tent meetings, held in August, 1901, by G. L. Minear and George Blagg, employed by the Presiding Elder. The building cost $1723.00. We dedicated it on the 22nd day of June at which time $875.00 was secured, which was more than sufficient to meet all obligations. This appointment will easily pay $250.00 for pastoral support the ensuing year.

The church at Farmington burned to the ground nearly three years
